

Exam in HUMAN RIGHTS AND NON-DISCRIMINATION IN THE EU
for students enrolled in the academic year 2010/2011

Students will take a written exam, consisting of two types of questions. The first type of questions will require students to answer briefly or to choose the correct answer. The second part of the exam will be more complex. Students will be provided with the facts taken from an ECJ case. Students will be required to resolve the case and to motivate his/her decision (or to criticise the decision taken by the Court, etc).

Basic literature: the reader prepared by Professor Thomas Fleiner and Professor Lidija Basta Fleiner.

Exam will be prepared and graded by Professor Rodoljub Etinski (University of Novi Sad, Faculty of Law).

Please note once again that this applies only to students enrolled in the academic year 2010/2011.
