

ADDITIONAL COURSE

AT MASTER IN EUROPEAN INTEGRATION

Multi-level Challenges in the EU: Constitutional, Private and Business Law

From Saturday, March 20th to Friday, March 26th, 2010, Conference Hall

Saturday, March 20

18.00-19.30 Prof. Stephan Kirste - Maastricht Treaty and the Democratic Deficit Problem. The Perspective of the German Constitutional Court (BVerfG)

Monday, March 22

17.30-19.00 Prof. Stephan Kirste - Lisbon Treaty and Democratization of the EU. The Perspective of the German Constitutional Court (BVerfG)

19.15-20.15 Dr. Thomas Meyer - EU Company Law in practice - Impact of EU court practice on national legal practice

20.15-21.00 Discussion

Tuesday, March 23

17.30-19.00 Dr Friedemann Kainer - The Manifestation of Multi-level Challenges in the Legal Order of the EU

19.15-20.15 Prof. Jo Shaw - European Constitutionalism

20.15-21.00 Discussion

Wednesday, March 24,

17.30-21.00 Prof. Schröter/ Dr. Kainer - Four Freedoms and Law-making. Instruments to Complete the Internal Market

Thursday, March 25

17.30-21.00 Prof. Schröter/Dr. Kainer - European Competition Law and the Challenge of a Multi-Level-System

Friday, March 26

17.30-21.00 Prof. Schröter - Competition Law – Specific Questions

Visiting lecturers:

- ❖ Professor Helmuth Schröter, Key Legal Expert, Technical assistance to the Commission for the Protection of Competition
- ❖ Professor Stephan Kirste, Faculty of Law, University of Heidelberg
- ❖ Dr Thomas Meyer, International Consultant, Former Head of the GTZ Legal Reform Project for SEE
- ❖ Dr Friedemann Kainer, Institut für deutsches und europäisches Gesellschafts- und Wirtschaftsrecht, University of Heidelberg
- ❖ Professor Jo Shaw, School of Law, University of Edinburgh