

EXAM INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE EU ANTI-DISCRIMINATION LAW COURSE

Examiner: Assoc. Prof. Ivana Krstić

The exam will be written and shall consist of short questions (open and close ended), essay type questions and a case analysis (real cases of the European Court of Human Rights and the EU Court of Justice and hypothetical cases).

Material for the preparation of the exam:

- Textbook R. Etinski, I. Krstić, EU Law on the Elimination of Discrimination, 2009;
- additional materials provided during classes;
- PPT presentations.

Topics that will be covered in the test are as follows:

1. Definition of discrimination
2. Different forms of discrimination
3. Positive measures (affirmative actions, preferential treatment)
4. Sources of the EU Anti-Discrimination Law
5. Prohibition of discrimination on grounds of nationality
6. Discrimination based on gender/sex
7. Equal Pay
8. Pregnancy and Maternity Discrimination
9. Discrimination based on sexual orientation
10. Discrimination based on age
11. Discrimination based on racial or ethnic origin
12. Discrimination based on religion or belief
13. Discrimination based on disability
14. Remedies for victims of discrimination
15. Independent bodies and their role
16. Serbian anti-discrimination legal framework

Student shall have one hour and a half to complete a written test. Test will compose of 15 questions. Student can ask the examiner for the clarification of any question during the examination period. If student is not satisfied with the mark, he/she can be orally examined for one higher mark. In that case, student will get a question which relates to the jurisprudence of the European Court of Human Rights and the EU Court of Justice in the area of anti-discrimination.

Student is graded on attendance, class participation, homework and written test.

It is not possible to get mark higher than 7 if a student was attended less than 30% of lectures and practical classes.