

Events at MEI on Friday, March 7, 2014.

Master in European Integration (MEI) will be the host to the group of 43 students from the Association of students in Political Science and International Relations of the Geneva University. The topic of their study trip is “Serbia’s candidature to the European Union: controversies and obstacles”.

Two following lectures will be held for the guest students from Geneva and the MEI students:

1. Friday, March 7, 17.30-19.00, Mr. Vladimir Medak, European Integration Office of the Government of the Republic of Serbia, “Serbia’s efforts towards the EU integration from the perspective of the Republic of Serbia”.

2. Friday, March 7, 19.00-20.00, Ms. Marija Pejčinović, the Team Leader from PLAC project, will have a presentation regarding: ”Croatian experiences and lessons learnt from the negotiation and accession processes”.

From 22.00 and further on the same evening, the social event/party for both groups of students will be organized in the hostel Arca Barca, which is located at the Danube River. The bus transfer will be secured for the guests, starting from the Faculty of Law parking place at 21.45.

Costs for the space and drinks will be 10 euros per student. There will be no food during the party.