

Seminar „European Integration Process“ in the Serbian European Integration Office

A high quality seminar was held in the Serbian European Integration Office for students of Master in European Integration on May 8, 2014. This is the second generation of MEI students that was given the opportunity to attend this very interesting and outstanding seminar. The seminar represents one of many different forms of successful cooperation established between the Serbian European Integration Office and the University of Belgrade Faculty of Law. This year the seminar was organized with the support of the Foundation Friedrich Ebert Stiftung. Students attended a number of lectures held by experts from the Serbian European Integration Office. It commenced by a lecture given by Mr. Vladimir Medjak, Assistant Director, entitled „Legal framework: SSP/IA and NPI/NPAA“. This introductory lecture was followed by another lecture held by Sanja Mrvaljevic Nisavic relating to „Recent development and future challenges in political criteria and JLS“. After the lunch break, the seminar continued with two very interesting lectures. Aleksandra Sekulovic, Head of the Group for Internal Market, delivered a lecture entitled „Recent development and future challenges in competition and consumer protection“. The seminar was closed by a lecture held by Olivera Vitorovic, Head of the Group for Energy, Transport, Trans-European networks and Electronic Communications, relating to „Recent development and future challenges in energy policy“. Certificates were awarded to all participants upon completion of the seminar.
