

The new academic year of Master in European Integration was officially opened

On Thursday, October 23 2014, the new academic year of Master in European Integration was officially opened.

Reinhard Priebe, Former European Commission's Director for the Western Balkans, held introductory lecture. The topic was "What means to become and to be a member of the EU". After the lecture, the Dean held welcoming speech and officially opened the new academic year. During the Opening Ceremony professors used the opportunity to welcome students and present their courses.

