

"This is the second graduate program that I have chosen to study because I felt a lack of deeper knowledge and understanding of EU development during my involvement in political and social life in Latvia. This program gives a wonderful opportunity to those who plan their future career in politics or within European institutions to gain the necessary knowledge in just one year. Study courses include both theory and practice, thus allowing students to enhance their understanding of the processes, goals and aims of EU."

Olga Gogina, student from Latvia

"Due to participation in this master program I gained a remarkable experience of studying in a high-level professional atmosphere. The organisation of Master's studies left an outstanding impression on me because being a foreigner I have not undergone any difficulties both in administrative and academic processes. The wide range of selection of subjects, supplemented with literature, access to the library made studying most productive. In particular, I would like to mention the friendly attitude towards students and willingness to help in any situation. The choice of this program will satisfy any demanding applicant."

Kateryna Popova, student from Ukraine

"The competence of the professors, the diversity of taught courses, as well as the level of academic coaching at this master's program provides an excellent opportunity for all students to increase their knowledge in European political and legal issues, which is becoming increasingly important in today's world. This program fully met my expectations and it was a pleasure attending it."

Arifandy Refrawan, student from Indonesia

"The MEI program at the University of Belgrade has been a great opportunity for me to meet students from around the world and learn about the process of joining the European Union. Here in Belgrade I have found a very accommodating faculty, a wonderful city, and very open and inviting students. I would encourage many other students to enroll in the MEI program in order to understand this new and interesting field of study."

Kevin Bassney, student from USA

"First of all, the Master's in European Integration program offers a wide range of courses addressing European integration in its various aspects. Thus, students can opt for and focus on particular areas of this broad topic depending on their interest."

I consider taking the Master's in European Integration program a great lesson – in addition to deepening my knowledge about the EU, I am learning a lot about Serbia and its attitudes, perspectives, opinions, hopes, fears etc. towards integration with the Union. It is an invaluable experience to listen to, witness and participate in discussions on the European topics in the Serbian context."

Marta Glaczyńska, student from Poland

"If you are interested in high academic standards, sharp critical perspectives and a vibrant place to live and study with students from all over the world, the Master in European Integration of the University of Belgrade is the right place for you."

Ten years ago, the University of Belgrade Faculty of Law started implementing the Master's Academic Studies - MASTER IN EUROPEAN INTEGRATION (MEI 60 ECTS). According to the criteria for National Academic Accreditation, 60 students can enroll each academic year in MEI 60 ECTS.

Since the academic year 2013/14, the program has also received accreditation for a two year MASTER IN EUROPEAN INTEGRATION (MEI 120 ECTS), according to which up to 10 students with a Bachelor's degree (valid 180 ECTS) can enroll each academic year.

The aims of this master's study program are to offer adequate knowledge and capabilities for working in both legal and non-legal jobs related to the integration into the European Union. The knowledge of the laws and politics of the European Union is used in state administration, the business, information, education and civil sector, as well as in research and scientific institutions.

The educational process is conducted by prestigious academics from the University of Belgrade, Faculty of Law, in cooperation with the visiting professors from the EU Consortium of Faculties. Additional courses and visiting lectures are organized each academic year, and the students receive certificates for attending them.

The official language of MASTER IN EUROPEAN INTEGRATION is English.

The eligibility requirements for the one year MEI (60 ECTS) are a Bachelor's Degree, with at least 240 ECTS, from the law faculty or a faculty of social sciences-humanities.

The eligibility requirements for the two year MEI 120 ECTS are a Bachelor's Degree, with at least 180 ECTS, from the law faculty or a faculty of social sciences-humanities.
