

Additional information related to the MEI master thesis writing

Due to new library rules on the form and content of master and doctoral thesis, and all archived written academic papers, the MEI thesis and seminar paper shall contain on its last page the short biography of the student-author (with the date and place of birth included).